

We are the United States of America. Indiana's is a great state to live in and I enjoy my privacy. Since the law has been in effect, I receive very few calls. My home life is more peaceful. It was hard to believe the huge volume decrease. Please do not adopt the lower national standard. Keep Indiana the graet state that it is.